Pashley Down Infant School is a wonderful and unique three form infant school. We are situated at the foot of the South Downs in Old Town, Eastbourne. The school benefits from amazing outdoor grounds and our happy confident children enjoy rich learning opportunities in class and on our mini-farm, woodlands and allotments. We are grateful to have a passionate forward-thinking staff, parents and governors.

We are looking for a Class Teacher to join our happy school from September 2023. The successful candidate will be a highly motivated, outstanding teacher with high expectations for all children and have recent experience at infant level. They will be passionate about making learning meaningful, enjoyable and challenging.

The successful candidate will be joining an experienced and dynamic team, committed to ensuring that, in partnership with parents, young children have the best possible start in life.

Please Tel 01323 730719 or email recruitment@pashley.e-sussex.sch.uk for a copy of the Job Description, Person Specification and Application Form.

Visits to the school on Friday 28th April or Friday 5th May are welcome - please telephone to book an appointment.
